

From the office of Commissioner
AIMEE KELLEY

City of Boynton Beach, District IV

March 2026

Welcome!

Welcome to my very first newsletter! Between my work as a paralegal, serving our city, and keeping up with my family, life is always moving—but I wanted to find a dedicated space to truly connect with you.

I want this to be a space where we celebrate everything that makes District 4 special, from the local shops we love, our brave first responders, and the milestones we achieve together. Recently, I've been traveling to Tallahassee and D.C. to fight for our city's future, but my favorite moments are always back home with you. I'm looking forward to sharing updates on our progress and the many ways we're working for each of you!

BBRF Annual Award Ceremony

On Friday, February 20th, I had the distinct honor of attending the annual Boynton Beach Fire Department's Award Ceremony. It was a deeply humbling experience to stand among the men and women who serve as the backbone of our community's safety.

We often go about our daily lives—taking our kids to school or heading to work—forgetting that there are people standing by 24/7, ready to run toward the situations most of us run away from. These awards represent hours of training, split-second life-saving decisions, and a level of courage that deserves our constant gratitude.

Candlelight Concert at the Arts & Cultural Center

I had a wonderful time on Saturday, January 17th, at the city's first candlelight concert honoring Whitney Houston and Mariah Carey. It was my first chance to experience an event in our newly renovated Event Hall at the Boynton Beach Arts & Cultural Center, and the space is absolutely stunning! Don't worry if you missed out—there is another concert featuring the music of Adele coming up on May 16, 2026. I hope to see you there!

Lobbying for Boynton Beach in Tallahassee

In January, I traveled to Tallahassee for Palm Beach County Day 2026. This event brings together local leaders to advocate for our community's top priorities, including infrastructure, affordable housing, and economic development. Our City Commission had the productive pleasure of meeting with Representative Rob Long, Representative Peggy Gossett-Seidman, and Senator Mack Bernard to ensure Boynton Beach's voice is heard at the state level.

Family Fun Day at The Schoolhouse Children's Museum

I had the absolute best time cheering along with the Poinciana Elementary School cheerleaders at the annual Family Fun Day! This wonderful event is hosted by the Schoolhouse Children's Museum, a true local treasure as the only children's museum in Palm Beach County. It was heartwarming to see so many families come together to play, learn, and celebrate the vibrant community spirit that makes Boynton Beach so special.

Push-In Ceremony

On February 22nd, I had the pleasure of attending the Push-In Ceremony for Truck 5 at Fire Station #5. This tradition dates back to the era of horse-drawn carriages, which couldn't easily be backed into the station—so firefighters had to push them in by hand! Today, we continue this symbolic gesture to welcome new equipment into service. It was a beautiful way to honor our fire department and celebrate the tools that help keep us safe. Welcome to the fleet, Truck 5!

Ethical Governance Day at Boynton Beach Community High School

I was delighted to participate in the 2026 Ethical Governance Day at Boynton Beach Community High School on February 20th. It was a privilege to see our students—the next generation of leaders—engaging so thoughtfully with state and local officials. My sincere thanks to PBC School Board Member Erica Whitfield and Judge Samantha Feurer for organizing such an inspiring day. It provided invaluable insight into the world of civil service and the career paths that lead there.

Lobbying for Boynton Beach in Washington, D.C.

This month I traveled to Washington, D.C. for the National League of Cities Congressional City Conference! This was a fantastic opportunity to advocate for our community alongside federal officials and policy experts. Lots of workshops and conversations around transportation, infrastructure and public safety. Commissioner Cruz and I had the opportunity to meet with our federal lobbyists to discuss the new appropriations we've secured—funding that will go directly toward vital improvements for our city!

Swearing in Ceremony

I am grateful to have earned your trust and confidence for another term as your Commissioner. On March 23rd I was sworn in by the Honorable Caryn Siperstein. This was during our regularly scheduled City Commission meeting. It was a blessing to be joined by constituents, family and friends. I am especially proud to have set an example of trust, transparency and leadership for my teenage daughter and other young women who aspire to better their community through service. It was especially meaningful that it took place during Women's History Month.

Thank you for your support. We will continue to work toward making our community safer and fiscally responsible.

Business Highlight: Field of Greens

District 4 is now the proud home of the newest Field of Greens location!

Known for their fresh, local ingredients and 'gourmet-style' approach to fast-casual dining, they are a fantastic addition to Boynton Beach. From vibrant salads to refreshing juices, they make eating healthy both easy and delicious. We were honored to host their ribbon-cutting in February—make sure to visit them at Gateway Blvd and show some local love!
